

Aotearoa Catholic Youth Festival

Privacy Notice

10 July 2017

We, the New Zealand Catholic Bishop’s Conference Council for Young People (‘Council’), the Aotearoa Catholic Youth Festival (‘Festival’) organiser, collect your personal information (including your name, phone number and address), demographic information (such as age and occupation), financial information (such as credit card details), identification information (such as your driver’s license), information about dietary requirements or special needs, and in taking photographs and videos of the Festival, so that we can contact you and provide you with services and information in relation to the Festival and the Catholic Church generally and promote the happenings at and following the Festival.

We will also use the contact details you have provided us to send you marketing information and materials related to our activities, functions and initiatives, including via email or other digital communications.

We generally collect personal information directly from you via our website, our Facebook profiles, via the registration and ticket purchase process, and/or when you otherwise contact and correspond with us (eg over the phone, via email or in person). Where it is not practicable to collect personal information from you, we may also collect personal information from publicly available sources of information, and, where you have provided your consent (or your parent or guardian has consented if you are under 18 years of age), from third parties.

If you do not provide us with the personal information we have requested, we may not be able to provide you with services or information.

We may disclose your personal information:

- to Festival suppliers to enable your participation in and our organisation of the Festival;
- to our related entities, contractors providing services to us and to other third party service providers used in relation to the Festival; and
- where we are required or authorised by New Zealand law to do so.

Further information about how we handle your personal information, including details about how you can access your information and how you can complain about a breach of the Privacy Principles (as well as how we will deal with any complaint) can be found in our Privacy Policy available at www.catholicyouthfestival.nz
